

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Children are a most precious gift, a source of happiness and our reliance on a stable and hopeful future. Our children's futures are shaped, molded and formed by the interactions of their daily exposure to life; and

WHEREAS, Parents impart valuable character traits and qualities to their children, including a sense of self-worth and service to families and communities; and

WHEREAS, Reading to our children will always remain a critical and necessary learning function, we must also realize the potential of television, music and other forms of media; and

WHEREAS, The Wiggles are a children's entertainment group dedicated to writing, dancing and singing songs that are entertaining, fun and truly educational. Through their music, films and shows, they have taught millions of children important skills and valuable lessons in life; and

WHEREAS, Jeff Fatt, Greg Page, Anthony Field and Murray Cook, as The Wiggles, have dedicated their lives and true talents toward the enrichment, empowerment, and development of our most valued and cherished resource, children; and

WHEREAS, in appreciation for their hard work and commitment to entertaining and educating the children of Louisiana and the world.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kathleen Babineaux Blanco, Governor of the state of Louisiana, do hereby proclaim Monday, August 2, 2004 as,
